

Privacy Policy

We regard the lawful and correct treatment of personal information by the National Council for the Elderly as very important to successful operations and for maintaining confidence between ourselves and those with whom we deal. We therefore make every effort to ensure that personal information is treated lawfully and correctly.

Should the National Council for the Elderly collect any personal information this will be dealt with properly however it is collected, recorded and used - whether on paper, in a computer or recorded on any other material and there are safeguards to ensure this in the Data Protection Act, 2002.

The National Council for the Elderly expects anyone with access to personal information to respect the need for confidentiality and to avoid improper use or transfer of such information.

the National Council for the Elderly fully endorses and adheres to the Principles of data protection, as detailed in the Data Protection Act 2002 and any other related Laws of Malta.